Description

Stock #329915 - Excellent condition Commander powered by twin 427s! This 1970 Chris Craft 38 Commander Sedan is beautiful and ready for cruising. This boat has been in freshwater only, an added bonus for the twin Chris Craft Ford 427 engines. Very clean inside and out and well-maintained by the current owner. Has window covers for the helm and berth. Nice V berth sleeping area with a salon for extra guests. The boat can sleep 6 people comfortably. All the comforts of home with fridge/freezer unit, stove, oven, and microwave in the galley. Blinds on the windows. The head has cubby units for extra storage. The Dinette area has bench seating that has recently been reupholstered. The V berth has also been reupholstered and a new headliner was put in. The deck area is enclosed with ample natural light and seating with sliding doors to get in and out easily. This boat is ready for a new owner to sail away with it.
