Description

Stock #509296 - A fishing machine! Rare Savage! Clean and maintained! Loaded and ready to hit the water! For Sale and Located in Stuart, Florida is this Rare 1977 Sea Craft 23 Savage Potter Hull Center Console with Cuddy Inboard boat. This classic 1977 Sea Craft 23 Savage Potter Hull combines legendary offshore capability with extensive mechanical and cosmetic updates. The deep, stable hull and low center of gravity provided by the centrally positioned inboard engine deliver impressive sea-keeping characteristics, making this a standout classic for serious boating enthusiasts. Power comes from an inboard engine with freshwater cooling and a nibril propeller. The entire driveshaft and cutlass bearings were professionally redone by Apex Marine, along with the installation of new running gear. Upholstery is in good condition and the T-top was all redone, including removing the old non working radar dome. A 9" Garmin unit was installed. The gelcoat shines giving this classic Sea Craft an outstanding appearance. The bottom was professionally stripped of its old paint, treated with a two-part epoxy barrier coat, and finished with premium bottom paint for added protection. Considerable work has gone into maintaining both the appearance and performance of this boat. The boat features a generously sized cuddy cabin, providing sheltered space to get out of the elements and added versatility for day trips and overnight adventures. The fuel system has been updated with twin 50-gallon aluminum fuel tanks, providing a total capacity of 100 gallons for extended time on the water.
