Description

Stock #369958 - SALE PENDING Well kept 1999 Conquest upgraded with twin 250 Mercury Verado 4-stroke enginesBoston Whalers are legendary for their positive-floatation hulls. This 28 Conquest is true to the brand's quality, design, and finish. The boat has been upgraded with 2007 low-hour (598) Mercury Verado 250 horsepower 4 stroke enignes. The fuel-efficient engines will provide plenty of range with the 296-gallons of fuel capacity. The boat set up for hardcore fishing, cruising or staying overnight. The cockpit has ample room for several anglers. There is a live well, two in-deck fish boxes, and rod holders in the gunnels and transom. There is a door to bring in the big ones or step out to the platform to take a dip in the water. There is a fold-down bench seat in the cockpit, an L-shaped seat for relaxing and the captain has ladder back seat that swivels. Overhead is a large hardtop, that provides plenty of cover from the elements. The captain will enjoy the well-laid-out helm. There are Mercury LCD readouts and VDO gauges, the recently-installed massive Garmin XSV MFD with radar, and a Rockford Fosgate stereo head unit in easy to reach. The switches light up and for convenience, there is a windlass. The cabin is ample sized for overnight stays. The forward berth has a drop down table. There is a mid-berth you can sit up in and a wet head. The galley consists of a refrigerator, microwave, sink and stove top.
