Description

Stock #385046 - Get Your Vintage Vibes On! Grab this 1972 Chris-Craft Commander 31 with spare shallow water fishing propeller included! Sellers bought the boat in 2017, and have only used it once or twice per season. It is always stored inside in the winters. They have it professionally cleaned and tuned up each year. It is winterized and in storage now. When they purchased it they had a mechanical inspection and survey, but because of purchasing a vineyard they have not been able to use it. They lived 25 minutes from Marina, and would just go sit on the boat to watch the sunset or fireworks. The boat has beautiful classic lines, and she just loves it for that reason. It drives beautifully and is a head turner whenever they took it out on the water. We are looking for people all over the country who share our love for boats.
