Accommodations

Entering the 62 Offshore from either companionway or from the cockpit, there are swing doors for both. The cockpit is separated with a walk-through transom; aft, the very large swim platform with storage and swim ladder below, and hot and cold shower, and then the cockpit with teak chairs and table, the outdoor kitchen with grill, ice maker and sink. Large marine speakers set the mood with the music of your choice, and the ladder is there to go to the aft section of the flybridge.

Inside the spacious, full beam salon, the settee is to port with a newly redesigned entertainment center, with a 32" HD flat-screen TV, Sony Digital surround am/fm receiver with ipod dock, 5 channel Niles speaker selectors, DVD and Blu-Ray players, in the aft starboard corner. Galley is amidships with the companionway to the private master stateroom (and laundry room) opposite.

Forward of the galley and 3 steps up, puts you in the pilothouse, with a large, comfortable dinette, wine cooler and 2nd refrigerator and the interior steps to the flybridge. The helm, with two Stidd stairs and 3 20" LCD monitors to run the truly excellent Furuno Navnet 3D system, is a pleasure underway or at rest, planning the next excursion. Forward of the pilothouse's helm are the stairs to the guest staterooms, forward and below.

There is a total of 3 staterooms, master amidships with en-suite head, VIP forward and 3rd guest stateroom forward to port with guest head opposite. The Flybridge is the ultimate outdoor entertainment venue. Forward, there is wrap around seating behind the helm, with cocktail tables. A starboard side lounge seat with views over the bow forward, and under cabinet refrigerator below. The helm is spacious and seats three in separate captain's chairs. Marine electronics include two independent GPS plotters, autopilot, to make a few. Overhead, white powder coated aluminum top has stamoid canvas, flybridge speakers, intercom, and an array of courtesy lighting.

The aft flybridge is set up for the tools and business of having fun; a 10' Nourvrania rib with a 50hp Yamaha four stroke sits on chocks to port, and a Marquipt davit to get her in and out of the water. Room for rafts, kayaks is ample aft.

Galley

Forward of the main salon, this galley is not only functional, but beautifully designed. Custom counter tops and raised galley shelf top are stunning in Emerald Pearl Granite. Lots of cabinets for storage, some with slide out shelves. Standard items include: concealed hinges on all cabinets, drawers and cabinet interiors finished in white formica, disposal system, trash compactor and a 12v exhaust blower.
