Description

Stock #510317 - Serious Offshore Capability! Twin Mercury 150HP! Stand-up Marine Head! Twin Baitwells! Tuna Door! Ready To Fish! Garmin GPS!2021 Mako 236 Center ConsoleCheck out this 2021 Mako! Great family adventurer and a serious fishing machine ready for its next owner. This highly versatile center console perfectly balances hardcore angling features with premium family comforts. Powering this clean package is a reliable, fuel-efficient 150hp 4-stroke Mercury outboard with digital throttle and shift controls, making handling smooth and effortless. When not out on the water making memories, the entire package stays completely protected under a full boat cover, and getting to your favorite boat ramps is a breeze thanks to the included trailer. For the family days, the layout is incredibly accommodating. It features comfortable port and starboard forward seating with massive 247-quart insulated storage and drains below, plus an integrated forward-console seat complete with a 52-quart insulated cooler. The deep, secure cockpit includes a flush-folding, cushioned center transom jump seat that comfortably seats two additional passengers. A port tuna, dive, and boarding door with a hinged gate provides safe, easy entry from the water or dock. Best of all, the spacious in-console enclosed marine head offers a clean gelcoated surface, an impressive 6-foot clearance, a plumbed head, and easy wiring access, ensuring everyone stays comfortable during long days in the sun. When it is time to fish, this boat completely transforms. The helm has a premium Garmin GPS paired with trim tab switches on a clean console framed by a hardtop with a powder-coated aluminum frame and integrated electronics box. Anglers will love the aluminum leaning post with a flip-up bolster, built-in rod holders, and an 94-quart Igloo cooler. The fishing amenities are top-tier, showcasing two 22-gallon rounded aft livewells with angled fills and friction-hinged acrylic lids. Your catch stays fresh in the 135-quart aft port and starboard in-deck fishboxes equipped with gravity drains and a diaphragm pump, and cleanup is an absolute breeze at the end of the day thanks to the onboard freshwater washdown system. This beautifully maintained, do-it-all boat truly offers the ultimate layout for both serious tournaments and casual family sandbar Sundays. This is a brand new listing, just on the market this week.
