Experienced Sales + Customer Service

The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. In a traditional face to face environment, skilled salespeople could qualify a customer based on body language, personality type, etc. In today's internet age, many buyer

Classic fishing and cruising vessel!! It won't last long!!

The seller states, \"This is simply a very good seaboat\"...and that says a lot!

She features very recently installed electronics and cushions. The cockpit provides a great space for four rods to handle the day of fishing, and the below-deck area has a two-place berth, head with shower, galley with sink and microwave, and plenty of storage in the under cushion areas, hanging closet and shelving.

The windlass is remotely operated from the helm, and there are two stainless steel storage boxes under the aft deck hatch.

All in all...this is one you have to see!!
