	Albin 43 Sundeck - diesel power, loads of room
	This is a 1986 Albin 43 Sundeck located in Rhode Island. She has the classic trawler profile, a traditional teak interior, and fuel-efficient operation.
	This boat has a unique 2 stateroom design nicely integrated with the galley-down layout. She has teak and holly soles throughout, which are in good condition
	Her spacious main salon is bright and well ventilated The salon has sliding deck doors to both starboard and port and features a sleeper sofa and entertainment center with TV.
	Aft of the salon is the owner' centerline queen bed, a large and abundant storage through	head with tub/shower
	Forward of the salon and dow dinette to port and a galley to includes double stainless sinks, an electric stove with oven and a near full size fridge - freezer. There is also ample counter and cabinet space.

All the way forward is another cabin that has a traditional V- berth and plenty of storage. The second head is just aft of this forward cabin.

There are two large seating areas outside of the cabin. The sundeck all the way aft is covered by a hard top and has room for dining and lounge chairs.

The raised bridge deck features front to back passenger seats and a centerline pedestal seat forward at the helm. New canvas and upholstery is on order and will be installed shortly.

These trawlers are reported to cruise economically at 10 - 11 knots with their dual 210 hp Cummins diesels. Her top speed is ~14 knots.
