Experienced Sales + Customer Service
The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. In a traditional face to face environment, skilled salespeople could qualify a customer based on body language, personality type, etc. In today's internet age, many buyer

Sundancer Low Hours waxed and fresh bottom paint ready for the summer!!

This 2006 Sea Ray 240 Sundancer is a solid boat for people looking to jump into the Boating lifestyle.
Big enough to overnight in and fun enough to drag a tube around the water.

On deck, you'll find plenty of seating throughout the cockpit with cupholders and plenty of storage for all your on water activities. There is a nice swim platform with a large storage locker for all your lines
and fenders.

Below decks, she is quite comfortable with an enclosed head to the starboard side with a shower and toilet. On the port side is a full galley with hot and cold running water, single burner stove, a microwave, refrigerator-freezer, and plenty of storage.

There is enough room to sleep 4 people 2 in the aft cabin and 2 in the convertible vberth/dinette.

Powered by a MerCruiser 350 magnum engine pushing out 300 hp matched to a Bravo three drive, she is fast and has plenty of power for all your water activities.
