Experienced Sales + Customer Service
The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. In a traditional face to face environment, skilled salespeople could qualify a customer based on body language, personality type, etc. In today's internet age, many buyer adventure!

Very Nice Boat for the New Sailor.

Don't be fooled by the year this boat was built. The owner has made multiple upgrades and refurbishing that are listed in the condition section.

If you are just getting into sailing, this is the boat for you.

This is a \"Big Little Boat\". For only being 25 feet, this boat has a lot of room in the cockpit and below deck is very spacious.

There is a V-Berth and a bench seat on both sides that will serve as sleeping areas for that overnight trip to Angel Island.

The table is easily converter from it's fold up and stowed position to a functional surface for eating, entertaining, or working away from the office.

She is in very good condition and ready for your adventures on the bay.
