Trailer in Harkers Island, NC

This 2006 Carolina Skiff 2480 DLX is powered by a 2016 Suzuki 140 HP four-stroke engine and includes a 2019 dual-axle trailer.

She was used commercially as a charter boat to carry up to 15 passengers on local island sightseeing tours. She has been maintained, the owner confirms.

She has a jackplate which allows the engine to be raised so you can run the boat in 8 inches of water. This shallow draft boat is the perfect lake, river, bay and near shore ocean fishing. Or, you can load up the family and friends and all of your gear and head to the island for a whole day of beach fun and barbecue.
