The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. Classic CHRIS-CRAFT CORSAIR! Clean interior!
Ready to take out on the water and fish or cruise!

The 1965 Chris-Craft Corsair XL 175 is a classic
fiberglass hull runabout with seating for 4 adults.

The seating in the Corsair consists of a pair of back-to-back seats. The seats convert into a sun pad by folding down. A brochure for the Corsair even suggests that they could be used as a Spartan berth
for overnighting.

A two-piece windshield provides protection to the cockpit area while underway.

The dash is simple and contains gauges and switches
for monitoring and running the boat.

The engine cover is manual with an air scoop. The front panel to the engine compartment is hinged and can be converted into a cockpit table.

The 1965 Chris-Craft Corsair XL 175 also includes a canvas cockpit cover to protect the interior cockpit when the boat is not in use.
