Experienced Sales + Customer Service

The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. In a traditional face to face environment, skilled salespeople could qualify a customer based on body language, personality type, etc. In today's internet age, many buyer

Excel 24 powered by a 200HP Johnson motor, baitwell and live well.

This is a good example of the 1995 Wellcraft Excel 24. The owner loves its excellent ride qualities and finds the investment he made in the Feruno GPS with plotter, fishfinder, and depth readout very well worth it.

The anchor has an electrically-operated winch, which makes life easy for the captain and the crew! And communications via the VHF radio are enhanced by a CB radio.

The transom has a completely removable panel that allows access to the swim platform and engine mount. The V-berth sleeps two and the galley includes a single-burner stove and a sink. The porta-potty is on the starboard side. All in all, a very nice boat at a very nice price!
