Experienced Sales + Customer Service
The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. Looking for an excellent fishing platform with the option to spend the night aboard? Look no farther than this 1985 Chris-Craft Commander 282 Sport Fish. There is plenty of cockpit space to fish, it has a galley, an enclosed head, and will sleep four. It also includes a tri-axle trailer.

The Commander 282 flip-down helm and passenger seating ready to be re-installed along with both side panels.

The aft cockpit is spacious with fishing pole holders
and an in-floor fish box.

There is a Bimini with full canvas and Isinglass to enclose the full cockpit.

Below decks, you'll find a galley to starboard with a sink, refrigerator, two-burner stove, and storage.

The enclosed head features a toilet, sink and wet shower.

Located at the bow is a dinette that cleverly converts to berths for 4. The table drops and with filler cushions sleeps two. The dinette seat backs are hinged and secure to the cabin ceiling to create two bunks.

A 2003 Loadmaster tri-axle trailer is included to help with storage or moving it to different bodies of water.
