Experienced Sales + Customer Service

The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. In a traditional face to face environment, skilled salespeople could qualify a customer based on body language, personality type, etc. In today's internet age, many buyer

2005 Bayliner 225 with a Mercruiser 5.0L Bowrider
- Ready to Go!

You have been asking for this 2005 Bayliner 225 bowrider and it has finally arrived. Make no mistake, this is the one! It is priced to move! Put your mouse down and take a hard look. Your search is over.

This 2005 Bayliner 225 is powered by a 5.0 V8 Mercruiser engine paired with an Alpha I Gen II outdrive. Legendary!

Bayliner has employed opposite-facing seats in some of its previous models, but those are usually closer to bucket-style seating. The seats found on the 225 are a doublewide version that is almost wide enough to seat two people. The bench seat facing backward butts right up to the L-shaped settee that wraps around the back side of the boat.
