Classic rig, great starter sailboat, kicker motor has low hours

This 1973 Gulf Coast 211 is a 21' daysailer located in Chandler. Texas.

Looking to get into sailing on a budget? This is the boat for that!

At 21', it's large enough for stability but easy to control with aft rudder controls and the newer, 2013 Nissan 6hp r stroke engine gets you underway

A simple forward cabin with mid-boat access is a great place to retreat to when not sailing and the seller has updated the control panel inside to a more modern setup.

The boat boasts a sporty classic look with nice lines and the red/white paint scheme really makes it look appealing!

If the open water and wind are calling your name and a budget-friendly model is what is called for, this 1973 Gulf Coast 211 might just be your rig!
