Description

Stock #301399 - Great Sea Ray express cruiser that is well maintained. This Sea Ray 340 Sundancer is a great express cruiser for days on the water or extended stays at your favorite port of call with family and friends. The first thing you will notice is the generous swim platform that is perfect for working on your tan lines. The cockpit is quite generous and has room to seat all of your guests. It also features a dinette that will easily accommodate four adults for meals or cocktails during happy hour. When you enter the cabin you will notice a few things including the sheer size of it and the modern lines and muted tones. There is plenty of storage space for your extended stays away. There is a full galley that has a nice amount of countertops which makes mealtime preparations quite easy for a boat. It will sleep six people without feeling too crowded. There is a full head equipped with a shower that is quite roomy. If you love being on the water but want the amenities of home, look no further than this Sea Ray!
