The key...great customer service. We love the marine industry and one of our core missions is to help raise the customer service bar in this industry.

However, the internet has completely transformed the way we do business. While traditional sales principles still very much apply (such as building a solid relationship with the customer, earning their trust, adding value, customer qualification, etc), how you get there is now very different. It used to be that a customer valued a solid handshake and an honest smile. Nordic is well known for building high-quality boats that handle speed and rougher water with ease.

Back in the 90s, they made their first foray into building a deck boat. Thus was born the Nordic Rush. Built with the same hull as one of the Nordic Offshore powerboats, this Deck boat comes in at 26' in length and is ready to handle the entire family for a day of fun.

There's a ton of storage under the seats for all your gear to keep the cockpit tidy, while a huge in-floor ski locker takes care of the larger things.

There's a small little room to starboard, which is meant to house a porta-Potti, but it's a fairly tight fit.

The Sony Stereo is powered by the large amps in the head, and there are a ton of speakers all throughout the boat.

The jewel in this Nordic Rush Deckboat is the 600 Horsepower Paul Pfaff aluminum Engine. This is a loud, fun, and fast deck boat that needs room to run.
