Description

Stock #359066 - Beautifully maintained 2011 Boston Whaler 320 Outrage, updated wiring, nice shiny gelcoat and engine runs great! This one is ready to go! This 2011 Boston Whaler 320 Outrage is the ultimate fishing machine, and with all of the seating throughout the boat, she's also a good boat for the entire family! With a 10 foot beam, there is plenty of room to move about throughout the boat. The ride of this boat is smooth and efficient! This boat is powered by twin 2014 Mercury 300 Verado motors with power-assist steering, making it handle like a dream! The motors have 687 and 690 hours on them per the seller. She also features twin 14" Raymarine GPS monitors, auto pilot, HD color long range radar, and auto Lenco trim tabs that automatically retract when the motors are turned off. You'll find a pressurized 45-gallon live well with a clear top in the prep station, along with a sink, tool storage, tackle bags and leader dispensers. There's also a 20-gallon live well in the transom corner. You'll also find 12-volt receptacles under each gunwale for downriggers. She also features twin 80-gallon fish boxes under the deck. You'll appreciate the large windshield design (with wiper) and this one has isinglass that attaches to the hardtop and fastens to keep warm and dry in the winter. There is also a bow cover and cockpit cover that covers the inside of the boat.A unique feature of this boat is a hatch that opens into the starboard side of the top for access to an upper station if you choose to have one. She also comes with a full boat cover and camper canvas with isinglass enclosure, plus a shade cover that goes to the transom from the top.
