Description

Stock #508819 - 1994 Luhrs Tournament 250 Open, many upgrades make this a fishing machine that is ready for big water! If you're searching for a capable sportfishing boat with a proven design, impressive offshore capability, and substantial recent mechanical and electronics upgrades, take a close look at this 1994 Luhrs Tournament 250! Known for its practical fishing layout, spacious cockpit, and hull designed to handle challenging conditions, the Luhrs Tournament 250 is an excellent choice for anglers who want a versatile boat for offshore adventures, coastal cruising, and memorable days on the water. The navigation and electronics package has received considerable attention. Garmin radar provides valuable information when navigating changing conditions, while a separate chartplotter and fishfinder help you locate productive fishing grounds and monitor underwater structure. A VHF radio equipped with AIS adds another useful layer of communication and navigational awareness. Whether you're heading offshore before sunrise, working along the coast, or exploring unfamiliar waters, this equipment gives you the tools to plan and navigate your trips with greater confidence. Below deck, the forward cabin provides additional utility and a place to get out of the weather. A forward sink, shower, and marine head add convenience for longer days on the water and weekend excursions. This 1994 Luhrs Tournament 250 combines classic sportfishing capability with significant mechanical investments and updated Garmin electronics. If you're ready to pursue offshore fishing, explore new destinations, or enjoy a versatile express-style boat, this Luhrs deserves your attention.
