Description

Stock #508933 - 1980 Chris-Craft 381 Catalina makes a great liveaboard. Come check her out! 2 heads! Located in Gordonville, Texas, this 1980 Chris-Craft 381 Catalina is a classic motor yacht that combines spacious accommodations, comfortable entertaining areas, and the solid construction Chris-Craft is known for. This freshwater boat features a large aft deck with bench seating and a captain's chair at the helm. A Bimini provides protection and shade while enjoying time on the water. Inside, the galley-up layout offers an expansive salon with two recliners and plenty of room to relax. The full-service galley features generous storage, countertop, a sink, stove, oven, and refrigerator. The thoughtful layout makes this Catalina well suited for extended outings, weekend getaways, or entertaining family and friends. Below deck, you'll find two separate sleeping areas. The aft cabin features two beds, while the forward cabin also has two beds, providing comfortable overnight accommodations for family and guests. Both cabins offer storage space, and the boat also features two heads, including an aft head with a tub and shower for added convenience. Power comes from twin Crusader engines with 1,668 hours, providing the performance to enjoy cruising and exploring the waterways. The generator has 1,223 hours, offering onboard power when away from shore connections. With its spacious interior, generous deck space, freshwater history, and classic Chris-Craft styling, this 381 Catalina offers plenty of features for anyone looking for a comfortable motor yacht. If you've been searching for a well-equipped cruiser with room for overnight stays and entertaining, this Chris-Craft in Gordonville, Texas, is worth a closer look. Make an offer today!
