Description

Stock #508013 - 1983 C&C Landfall Boat is well worth the price. Get it while it lasts. Make room for more freedom aboard this used 1983 C&C Landfall 43--a 43-foot center-cockpit sailing yacht that invites you to trade crowded schedules for quiet anchorages, waterfront sunsets, and weekends that never feel long enough. Whether you picture leisurely coastal cruising, extended escapes, or a home on the water, her inviting layout brings everyday comforts along for the adventure. Below deck, warm teak joinery and approximately 6 feet 5 inches of headroom create a welcoming retreat, while opening ports and deck hatches bring natural light and fresh air into your days afloat. Enjoy the privacy of an aft owner's stateroom with a centerline double berth, generous storage, and an ensuite head with a separate shower stall--your own retreat after a rewarding day under sail. Forward guest accommodations with a double V-berth and a second head give family and friends space of their own, while the convertible salon dinette provides additional sleeping accommodations for shared adventures. Gather around the table for dinner, stretch out with a book on the settee, or plan tomorrow's destination at the dedicated navigation station. A practical U-shaped galley offers the space and layout for everything from morning coffee to relaxed meals aboard, with lockers, drawers, and under-berth storage helping keep the living spaces comfortable and uncluttered. On deck, the center cockpit puts you at the heart of the sailing experience, with room to enjoy the journey as much as the destination. The model's approximately 12-foot-8-inch beam and 5-foot-6-inch draft complement a cruising layout that balances room aboard with opportunities to explore coastal destinations. For buyers drawn to classic styling, private accommodations, and the simple pleasure of taking their home comforts sailing, this 1983 C&C Landfall 43 offers an appealing setting for the next chapter--one measured in new harbors, dinners with friends, and mornings when the only appointment is with the tide.
