Description

Stock #504455 - Cruise in comfort with modern styling and versatile weekend capability. Twin Mercruisers, generator and air conditioned cabin! This 2009 Doral Prinstancia offers the kind of express‑cruiser experience buyers look for when they want comfort, style, and practical weekend capability. Its cockpit is laid out for easy conversation and relaxed cruising, with wraparound seating, a protective canopy, and a helm that feels intuitive thanks to clear analog gauges and Raymarine navigation equipment. The seating and helm area show thoughtful design, giving the operator good visibility and passengers plenty of space to settle in. Step below deck and the warm wood cabinetry, curved galley surfaces, and clean upholstery create a welcoming cabin for overnight stays. The galley includes the essentials for simple meal prep, while the forward berth and mid‑cabin seating convert into comfortable sleeping spaces. The enclosed head adds convenience for longer days on the water. Three qualities stand out: The inviting cabin craftsmanship, the generous cockpit layout for entertaining, and the balanced performance typical of Doral cruisers. It's a boat that feels ready for both easy day trips and relaxed weekend cruising. Contact us today to set up a showing or make an offer. This listing has now been on the market 30 days.
