Description

Stock #502510 - 2023 May-Craft Bay 22 with Mercury 150 & Load Rite Trailer. Ready for new adventures. This 2023 May-Craft Bay 22 is a Carolina-built bay boat designed for anglers and families who want shallow-water access, a stable ride, and dependable performance. Powered by a Mercury 150 FourStroke delivers excellent fuel economy, strong mid-range power, and the reliability Mercury is known for. The Bay 22 layout features large casting decks, ample storage, under-gunwale rod racks, and a spacious center console with room for electronics. Hand-laid fiberglass construction, foam flotation, and a self-bailing cockpit make this a tough, practical boat built for years of coastal use.A Load Rite aluminum tandem-axle trailer is included. The boat features large forward and aft casting decks, a livewell, rod storage, and a roomy center console, backed by Carolina-built durability and shallow-draft performance. The Bay 22 measures 22 feet in length overall with an 8-foot beam. Draft ranges from 1 foot minimum to 1.17 feet maximum, and the hull carries a 15-degree deadrise at the transom. Dry weight is 2,400 lbs, with a 60-gallon fuel tank and seating capacity for 8. This boat comes equipped with a radio, GPS, an electric bilge pump, and a swimming ladder, along with the included road trailer. This May-Craft Bay 22 is ready for the water and priced to move. Contact us today to schedule a showing or water trial. With a trailer package and low-draft versatility like this, it won't last long, so reach out now for pricing, financing options, or any questions you may have.
