Description

Stock #501568 - Low hours, nice condition with updated isinglass and nice canvas. This 2004 Sea Ray 320 Sundancer is an outstanding example of one of Sea Ray's most successful and desirable express cruisers. With timeless lines, a spacious cockpit, and a beautifully finished cabin, the 320 remains a favorite among families and weekend cruisers who appreciate comfort, reliability, and upscale design. This particular vessel has been continually upgraded and shows well. The boat features updated isinglass, rear bimini top, cockpit covers, and an upgraded oversized bow sunpad that transforms the forward deck into a premium lounging area. The air conditioning blows cold and is powered effortlessly by the onboard generator, giving you full comfort whether you're at the dock or anchored out for the night. The cockpit layout is ideal for entertaining, with generous seating, a double-wide helm seat with flip-up bolster, and a well-appointed wet bar. Visibility from the helm is excellent, and the walk-through windshield provides safe and easy access to the bow. Below deck, the cabin is warm and inviting, finished in Sea Ray's signature cherry wood cabinetry and plush upholstery. The forward berth provides comfortable sleeping accommodations, while the mid cabin lounge converts into an additional berth for guests. The galley is fully equipped with a refrigerator, microwave, cooktop, and ample storage, making overnight trips effortless. The enclosed head features a VacuFlush toilet, sink, and shower, and the reverse cycle air conditioning keeps the entire cabin comfortable year-round. Mechanically, the boat is equipped with twin MerCruiser 350 Mag engines paired with V-drives, offering smooth handling and reliable performance. The Kohler generator provides full electrical capability away from shore power, and the vessel's systemsThis listing has now been on the market a couple months.
